Haha, I appear to have jumped the gun. With Jeans approval I will be there.

Hi,

We haven't been invited either unless they planned on using the weekly time slot for the meeting, so something to follow up with RD on my end. If we are asked to attend I would like to have you join if Jean says it is okay.

Amy

Hi Amy,

I am not on the invite for the Nov 10th aldicarb meeting with the registrant (assuming it's not just the default team meeting on the 10th). I don't know if I should be, since it sounds more like a BEAD meeting and I'm not a member of the chemical team, so I just wanted to check. If you're expecting to have questions about any PCA/PCT method related things I can come no problem, otherwise I can let you guys have all the fun. Whatever you think is best.

Josh
